

Financial Services Guide

Purpose of this Financial Services Guide (FSG)

The purpose of this FSG is to assist you in deciding whether to use any of the financial services we offer. After reading this FSG, you will know:

- Who we are and how to contact us
- What financial services can be provided to you and how these services will be provided to you
- How we (and any other relevant persons) may be remunerated
- Whether any relevant associations or relationships exist that may influence our advice
- How we maintain your personal information
- How to access our internal and external complaints handling arrangements

About Eventus and your Adviser

Eventus Wealth Management Pty Ltd (ABN 62 134 958 642) (“Eventus”) is an Australian Financial Services Licensee, Licence No 335815.

Eventus is a principal member of the Financial Planning Association of Australia (FPA) and is bound by its Professional Code of Conduct and Ethics.

Eventus' Head Office is located at
Suite 2, 405 Nepean Highway, Frankston, VIC, 3199
Ph: (03) 8790 7700
Fax: (03) 8790 7701

Eventus appoints Authorised Representatives to act on its behalf for the provision of authorised financial services. Your Adviser is an Authorised Representative of Eventus. Eventus is therefore responsible for the financial services provided by it and its authorised representatives. Details of your Adviser are set out in the attached “Adviser Profile”. The Adviser Profile forms part of this FSG and they should be read together.

You are entitled to receive a ‘Statement of Advice’ on the first occasion that we provide you with personal advice or a ‘Record of Small Investment Advice if the advice relates to amounts under certain thresholds. These documents will:

- Explain the advice and the basis of the advice,
- Provide information about our remuneration (including commissions), and
- Disclose any associations or relationships that could potentially influence us in providing the advice.

After providing you with our Statement of Advice, any ongoing personal advice that we may provide will be documented in a further 'Statement of Advice', a 'Statement of Additional Advice' or a 'Record of Advice' depending on the nature of the advice.

Copies of the Statement(s) of Advice, Statement(s) of Additional Advice, Records of Small Investment Advice, and/or Record(s) of Advice will be retained on your client file and if you have not already been provided with one you may ask for a copy of these documents at any time.

We will also provide you with, or explain how to access, a Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') issued by the product issuer for any financial product we recommend. The PDS contains information about the costs, benefits, risks and other features of the recommended financial product. You should read this information to enable you to make an informed decision prior to purchasing the recommended financial product.

What financial services are we authorised to provide and how will these be provided to you? Eventus can offer financial services and advice that covers the following areas:

- Wealth Creation including advice on securities
- Retirement Planning including superannuation and strategies for transitioning to retirement
- Risk management & Protection of Assets
- Retrenchment & Redundancy advice
- Social Security / Centrelink entitlements

From these financial services, certain kinds of financial products may be recommended to you. Eventus can provide advice and arrange transactions on the following class of financial products:

- Superannuation and Retirement Savings Account products
- Securities
- Managed Investments (including an Investor Directed Portfolio Service (IDPS))
- Government Debentures, Stocks or Bonds
- Deposit Products
- Life Insurance products including investment life and life risk

Our Authorised Representatives can only provide advice on financial products within these classes where they appear on the Eventus "Approved Product List." The Approved Product List includes a large range of investment and insurance products for which the appropriate research and analysis has been undertaken.

An Authorised Representative of Eventus cannot advise you on, or influence you in favour of, a financial product which:

- is not on the approved product list; or
- is a managed discretionary account, or any arrangement where your Adviser can make changes to your portfolio before obtaining your consent; or
- is a product they are not authorised to provide advice on. Your Adviser's Adviser Profile will tell you the class of financial products your Adviser can advise on. Alternatively, you can find these authorisations in the Australian Securities and Investment Commissions (ASIC) website at www.asic.gov.au

Please be aware that Eventus shall not be responsible where an Adviser provides any services to you which are outside of their authorisation limits. You should therefore refer to the Adviser Profile and ask your Adviser to specifically confirm that the service or product does not fall within one of the above exclusions, prior to acting on any advice.

Can I provide my Adviser with instructions?

You may provide your Adviser with specific instructions by letter, email, telephone, fax or other means (as agreed with your Adviser).

How are we paid and how will you pay for the service?

Generally, there are three ways that you may elect to pay for the services we provide you. You can discuss these options with your Adviser to determine an option that suits you. The options available are as follows:

1. You may pay our fees out of the product in which you invest. The product provider may pay Eventus commission out of:

- a) a contribution (entry) fee which will be deducted by the product provider from your initial investment amount when you proceed with a transaction and also usually any subsequent amount you invest in the product; and/or
- b) management costs which will be deducted by the product provider from your account on an ongoing basis (e.g. monthly, quarterly or annually); and/or
- c) an Adviser Service Fee that you agree to with your Adviser for ongoing advice and service in relation to your investment in certain products.
- d) In relation to risk products (e.g. insurance), the product provider may pay commissions to Eventus based on the premium payable for that product. There may be either or both an initial and ongoing commission payable to us. Please note that while the commissions are payable based on the premium you pay, the commissions do not form part of your premium and are not an additional fee to you.

The contribution (entry) fees and management costs are normally calculated as a percentage of the relevant amount you have invested in the product. Most of these fees are paid direct to Eventus. Eventus then pays a portion to the relevant authorised representative and/or Adviser.

2. A Financial Planning Advice Fee based on either the time that was spent preparing your Statement of Advice (SOA) or on the value of the funds you choose to invest. If this option has been agreed to, you will be invoiced for the agreed fee at the time you are provided with your SOA. Your Adviser sets this fee and is detailed in the Adviser Profile.

3. You may pay for the services by a combination of the above options.

For information about the fees applicable to financial products recommended, please ask your Adviser, refer to the Adviser Profile in this FSG and the relevant Product Disclosure Statement. Also, your SOA will contain full details of any fees and charges you pay.

Other (additional) commission payments

Eventus may also receive additional commission payments from investment platform providers. In some cases your Adviser may be entitled to a portion of these payments. These payments are usually based on the amount invested with the product provider. More detail will be provided in a SOA if the relevant products are recommended to you.

Other Benefits

Eventus receives 'sponsorship' in the form of cash payments from some of the product providers listed on the Approved Product List. Amounts may vary per product provider (incl. GST). Your Adviser does not share directly in the sponsorship payments, but may benefit indirectly through the provision of subsidised conference attendance and training costs.

If you purchase direct shares through us, we may receive a portion of the brokerage you pay.

Your Adviser may also receive a range of other benefits from product providers such as marketing support or sponsorship, entertainment, conferences, accommodation and travel.

Do any relationships or associations exist which may influence the financial advice we provide?

A third party provider (e.g. an accountant) may receive a commission for referring you to the Adviser. Specific details of any such associations are detailed in the attached Adviser Profile.

We maintain a public register outlining the forms of alternative remuneration that are payable to and by Eventus. A copy of this register can be accessed upon request.

How do we maintain information about you?

National Privacy Principles apply to the collection of personal or sensitive information. In effect, this means that information provided by you in the course of receiving financial planning services must be used only for the following purposes:

- to provide you with information, products or services that you might reasonably expect or request;
- to fully understand or anticipate your needs during our relationship;
- to manage rights and obligations under any laws applying to the services provided; or
- to conduct research, or planning and marketing, which includes direct marketing, although you do have the right to specifically instruct that your details aren't used for these purposes

The type of information which will usually be requested will include significant details about your financial, taxation, health, employment and estate planning matters. This may include details relating to your partner or family members.

You are entitled to request access to your file for the purpose of reviewing and correcting the information held. However, you cannot access information where it would have an unreasonable impact upon the privacy of another person, or if the information is relevant to legal obligations or legal proceedings.

We will, from time to time, disclose information about you to our Authorised Representatives and to other professionals, insurance providers, superannuation trustees, product issuers and our service providers in connection with providing our services to you.

If your Adviser leaves Eventus and commences to provide financial services under another licensee, your information may be transferred to the new licensee. You will be advised of any such transfer prior to it taking place.

You are entitled to obtain access to the information which we hold about you by contacting the Privacy Officer on (03) 8790 7700 or by writing to our:

Privacy Officer, Eventus Wealth Management Pty Ltd
PO Box 1265, Frankston VIC 3199

For more information regarding our collection, use, storage and disclosure of your personal information, our Privacy Policy can be accessed on our web site www.portphillipgroup.com.au

How can you access Eventus's complaints handling arrangements?

Eventus is a member of the Financial Ombudsmen Service (FOS).

If you have a complaint regarding the provision of financial services to you, you should take the following action:

1. Speak to your Adviser about your concerns, or
 2. Contact us on 03 8790 7700 and ask to speak to our Professional Standards Manager.
- If after speaking to your Adviser or our Professional Standards Manager, your complaint is not resolved within three (3) days, please put your complaint in writing and send it to us, addressed to:

Professional Standards Manager,
Eventus Wealth Management Pty Ltd
PO Box 1265, Frankston VIC 3199

Whilst every endeavour will be made to resolve the matter promptly and impartially, if you are not satisfied with how your complaint is dealt with, you can elect to refer the matter, free of charge, to the FOS. FOS can be contacted on 1300 780 808. You can also write to them at:

How will I pay for the financial services?

Your initial meeting is free. At this meeting, your Adviser will explain the services available to you, what you can expect, the approximate costs, and the options available to pay for the services.

Remuneration and payment will be agreed before you become a client of Stable Private Clients Pty Ltd. The particulars of the fees, commissions and any other relevant remuneration and benefits will be disclosed to you in a Statement of Advice should we proceed to provide you with personal advice. Also, the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) of any financial product recommended will detail the fees payable to the product provider for that particular product.

Below is a summary of the way Stable Private Clients Pty Ltd (SPC) is paid. All fees are quoted inclusive of GST.

- 1. Initial Advice: The fee which we charge is based upon an hourly rate ranging from $110 - $385. It is estimated that the total time spent would not exceed 30 hours and so the charge to you may range from $1,750 - $11,000.

If you then implement the recommended strategy, the implementation is again based on our hourly rates. The fee for this service is generally between $550 and $2200 depending on the complexity of the implementation.

We should be in a position to provide you with a reasonable estimate of the likely fee after our initial discussion, and we would encourage you to discuss it with us during the first meeting.

2. Direct Shares: Should you wish to invest in direct shares, the share broker will charge a fee up to 1.1% for each trading instruction, with a minimum fee of $55 applying to each instruction.

SPC may receive 50% of the brokerage charges as payment for instructing, documenting and finalising the agreed share trade where the trade is outside our normal service agreement.

3. Ongoing Services: Our fee for ongoing service is based on the services that we perform for you as detailed in our ongoing service agreement. The amount payable is dependant on the agreed level of service in respect of services such as investment reporting, review and rebalancing of investments, direct share involvement and the number of meetings required on an annual basis, and is generally between $2,750pa and $16,500pa.

Payment options: You can choose to pay for our services by either:

- Paying our fee directly by cheque or direct debit;
- Electing to pay via an Adviser Service Fee which will be deducted directly from your account balance
- Electing to pay an upfront commission to the product provider with whom you invest.
- Via an ongoing (trailing) commission via the product provider with whom you invest.

In some instances, you may negotiate payment by a combination of all the above options. Please discuss this with your Adviser prior to proceeding with any of our services.

Do any additional relationships exist which may influence your recommendations to me?

Where you have been referred to us by Stable Financial Pty Ltd (ABN 63 120 403 643), we disclose that the proprietors of that company have an equity interest in Stable Private Clients Pty Ltd and as a result may benefit from profits generated as a result of your referral.

There is a referral arrangement in respect of insurance advice with Complete Risk Analysis Pty Ltd whereby Stable Private Clients receives 20% of the commission received.
